John Leonard was a dedicated family man, friend and Chicago firefighter. After fighting lung cancer valiantly, John succumbed to the disease on January 19, 2015. He left behind a legacy and some big boots to fill. Whether it was by being a lieutenant on the Chicago Fire Department, an instructor for the Illinois Fire Services Institute, a football coach at Saint Patrick High School, or the leader of the Merrimac Park Youth Council, John touched lives everywhere he went.
