Saint Patrick High School:

Founded in the Catholic and Lasallian Traditions of the Christian Brothers, Saint Patrick High School has been serving Chicago's youth for more than 160 years. Today, we exemplify and continue to grow in the 5 Core Lasallian Principles of Faith in the Presence of God, Concern for the Poor and Social Justice, Respect for All Persons, Quality Education for All, and Inclusive Community.

Originally located in the West Loop of Chicago, our modern campus is located in the Belmont-Cragin neighborhood of Chicago's Northwest Side community. Today, the passionate and collaborative efforts of the Saint Patrick community support our young men in their pursuit of Career, College, and Life readiness. We have rich traditions in Academics, Faith, Service, Tradition, Arts, and Athletics. We are seeking collaborative, motivated, curious, and mission-oriented educators who want to join our team for the 2022-2023 school year.

Students and Staff at St. Pat's are characterized by an extraordinary sense of community and shared purpose. Many graduates continue their education beyond St Pat's at top tier 4-year Colleges and Universities, and many enter the workforce or Technical and Trade schools immediately after their graduation at Holy Name Cathedral in Chicago. Our alumni include renowned business, legal, and political professionals, doctors, lawyers, trade union professionals, athletes, civil servants, and artists.

School leaders at St. Pat's share a passionate desire to support, empower, and develop the professional growth and success of our team members, during their time at Saint Patrick and beyond.
